. . . Upon
the threshold of a dream . . .

This yearbook was digitized by volunteers from the Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

It seems to me a crime
that we should age.
These fragile times should never slip us by.

Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free

The time seems never to shyly race,
as friends
together watch
their childhood fly.

This yearbook was digitized by volunteers from the Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

Making friends for the world to see —

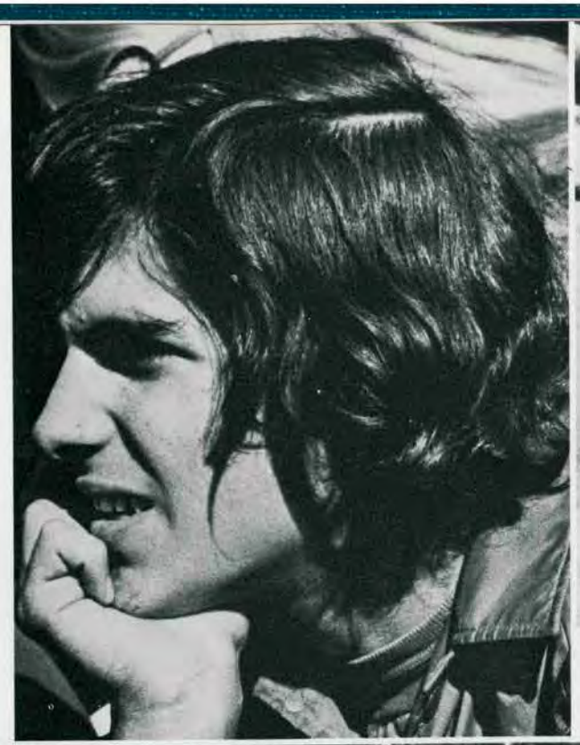

Let the people know, you got what 'ya need

This yearbook was digitized by volunteers from the Rutland Historical Society and the Rutland Free Library.

With a friend I have you will see the light

When your friends are there, then everything is alright

You who are on the road
Must have a code that you can live by
And so to become yourself
You who are on the road
Must have a code that you can live by
And so become yourself
Because the past is just a good-bye
And you of tender years
Can't know the fears
That your elders grew by

CATHERINE MILLER: Cathy ... an unique individual person ... quiet ... concerned ... "the joy of having Jesus"

And do please help them with your youth
They seek the truth
Before they can die
(Can you hear and do you care
And can't you see we must be free
To teach our children what you believe in Make a world that we can believe in.)

Graham Nash

Sometimes you dream
Sometimes it seems
There's nothing there at all
You just seem older than yesterday
And you're waiting for tomorrow to call

SPORTS

LEO "BUNDSIE" KEEFE

We of the yearbook staff would like to use this page to dedicate the '74-'75 Talisman to Leo "Bundsie" Keefe. His contributions to R.H.S. sports as a coach and as an athletic director have been many, and even though this dedication appears in the sports section, we do not wish to ignore his work as a teacher and confidant to students, for it was equally,if not more important. In a year where the gymnasium was renamed the Leo Keefe Gymnasium, this dedication may seem minor, but it is made with sincerest best wishes and thanks from all the students and athletes whose lives he touched. Our thoughts are summed up in the letter below.

It is difficult to think of a man as an institution when he works among us, teachers and students, everyday, giving of himself physically and emotionally. All the records in the cold books cannot measure the man for us — the championships not only in basketball, but also in football and baseball. Instead, what comes to mind alive are the long, weary bus rides back to Rutland from Brattleboro, Bennington, Burlington and more, where after farewells to his many adversary-friends, he seemed to sink totally spent from the exertion of the game. But usually after the first five miles, energy was restored and his thoughts shifted to the next game. To this day the biggest game is the next one.

But even this picture of a man totally dedicated to his work is misleading. One must somehow get into the picture the great sense of love that comes from him. The thoughts of Bernice that punctuated and filled his thoughts on the long bus rides, of his kids, and of his students and players. We are all richer from our relationship with Leo.

The 2-3 conference record of Joe Teta's Raiders would seem disappointing, but to the students whose favorite will always be football, this season was as exciting as any. Standing out was running back Billy Cioffrodi, athlete of the month in September, who was heralded as the best back in southern Vermont. Complimenting Bill were juniors Jeff Forte and Mike Higgins until he was injured. Quarterback Yetta Rushford had as receivers Doug Witt and junior Steve Bland. The unheralded line was led by Gary Godnick and Nick Baker. Defensively Robin Crossman, Chip Forte, Ed Marro, Dean Pierce, Chuck Hughes and kicker Bob Murphy kept the games at Flaitz Field close. As always, the M.S.J. game climaxed the season. The Raiders made the Mounties, who later became state champs, earn their victory in a 14-8 game.

Though Charlie Bridge's soccer team finished with a losing 4-6-1 record, the season was a success. Mr. Bridges began the year promising that the Raiders would surprise a few people and his first year team did just that. For instance Rutland forced the powerful Proctor Phantoms into overtime, and prompted the Proctor coach to wonder where the Raiders got their skills.

Scoring was led by seniors Pat McCarthy and John Mathews. They were ably backed by halfbacks Dave Phelps, Bill Brady and Bruce Tobin, the most valuable player. Guarding the goal were Dave Newton and Chris LaVietoire, who alternated with Tim Herbert the most improved player. In the goal was Frank Belock, converted during the early season.

The Raiderette Field Hockey team, in their third season of varsity play, placed third in the C.V.G.L. with a 5-4-1 record. The girls ended the season on a spectacular three game winning streak, qualifying them for a play-off birth in the state tournament. Against Springfield the Raiderettes lost in a 1-1 tie on the basis of short corners.

Co-Captain Kathy Blauvelt led the offense with eight of the 28 goals scored by the Raiderettes. The key to their victories was the scant II goals scored against Rutland, the stingiest defence in the league led by Co-Captain Terry Jones, the teams most valuable player. With Terry were standouts Lisa Jones halfback, fullback Barb Tannen and goalie Trisha O'-Neill. On offence it was Kath, Sue Jefferson, Kathy Kellogg, Hilary Rosenberg, and Tory Sneff.

Coach Greg McClellan's Raider Cross Country team entered the state championships with an unbeaten record. They had defeated everyone in Southern Vermont and also many northern teams. However, their aspirations for a state title were spoiled by a vastly improved Bellows Falls team, which had never beaten Rutland before.

Rutland's success was largely due to their middle runners Carl Scott, Pete Rushford, John Jawerski and Bryan Marquard, who by consistently filling many of the top ten positions squeezed out opponents. Walt Farrell was Rutland's number one runner placing first in one meet and second in the states.

In being number two in the state, the cross country team was the top finisher of the fall sports, which is a credit to the hard work and discipline of it's members.

With the alpine skiing of brothers John and Mike Higgins, the Rutland Raider ski team finished second in the state of Vermont under the coaching of Greg McClellan and Monk Martin. John Higgins demolished all downhill and slalom competition in Vermont with his brother Mike usually only a few tenths of a second behind. John was also selected to the Junior Nationals. Without him in the New Englands Rutland only placed third basically on the strength of a first place cross-country finish by Jim Goodwin. Also leading the cross country team were Walt Farrell and John Jaworski, while Mike Timbers excelled at ski jumping. The girls' team did not fare as well as the boys' but Sue Jefferson placed first in one state alpine event and would have captured another had she not suffered a fall. Helping her in the alpine events was Carol Thomas while Lee Dolan, Betsy Martin and Marny Wolcott led the cross country team.

ICE HOCKEY

Though not backed financially by the high school, the Rutland Ice Hockey team was definately supported by the students. The team was begun this year with support from prominent businessmen, whose efforts built the Mandigo Arena at the fairgrounds. Barry Vandeerberg coached the primarily underclassman team to the finals where they beat a Springfield team in the first round, only to lose to M.S.J. in the quarter finals. As usual the game between the cross town rivals attracted the largest crowds but by the end of the year Rutland finished on the short end with a 1-2 record. Center, leading scorer and most valuable player Pat McCarthy and defenseman Bob Murphy led the Raiders in beating established New Hampshire and Vermont teams to finish the season with a winning record.

INDOOR TRACK

The Indoor Track Team was a great success this year as they were undefeated in Vermont by winning the State Championship Meet in Dartmouth by 40 points. We were represented by Joe McClellan's sixth place in the sixty yard dash in the New England Meet.

The co-captains were Rick Aronson and Brian Marquard. Mike O'Neill broke the school high jump record at 6'1 and a half inches. Jeff Forte and Dave Fredette tied the school hurdle record. The standouts were, on the sprints and hurdles, Dave Fredette and Joe McClellan, middle distance, Mark Smith and Eric Eklund, distance, Tom Floyd and Brian Marquard, and the field events, Jim Johnston, Mike O'Neill, Eric Eklund, and Joe McClellan.

GOLF

SOFTBALL

Coming off a third place finish in '74, the girls' softball team seemed destined to make a bid for the C.A.L. crown. In the beginning of the season, Coach John Higgins faced a difficult decision in cotting down to a team because of a great number of sophomore tryouts. Roughly the line-up looked like this: pitchers-Diane West, Ellen Blanchard, Joanne Horvath, catchers-Sue Scott, Patty Miglori, first base-Robin Goodspeed, second base-Julie Sharrow, shortstop-Leslie Phillips, third base-Cheryl DiIonno, right field-Jeanne Little, center field-Kelly Wortman, and left field-Marsha Camp.

1974-1975 was a disappointing season for Jim Leamy's Raider Basketball team. For the first time in many years, Rutland did not have a good enough record in the tough S.V.L. to qualify for the state finals.

Injuries and illnesses plagued the Raider starters who included center Bob Czachor, forwards Ed Davidson and Steve Bland, and guards Bill Cioffredi and Bob Laird. A strong bench though took over where the starters left off. The Raider's lack of success however did not temper the fans interest especially in the M.S.J. — Rutland intra- city game. Unfortunately, as you might have guessed, we lost both games.

Once again Coach Barb Bridges' Raiderettes demolished all competition to capture the C.V.G.A.L. crown. The girls qualified for the state finals with a 14-0 record, but were defeated by Mt. Anthony in the first round.

The Raiderettes were led by center Sheree Potter, guard Kathy Kellogg, who was names to the C.V.G.A.L. all-star team, forwards Trish O'Neill and Leslie Phillips, and guard Julie Cable.

The Rutland gymnastics team, coached by Debbie Jenkins, finished with a 5-8 record, with several second and third place finishes. Rutland was led on floor exercise by sophomore Peggy Clifford. Peggy came in second in the districts and was the only Rutlander to qualify for the states. In vaulting, it was senior Barb Tanen, junior Leslie Rueling, sophomore Lauren Smith and Teri Hyland, who also specialized in the uneven bars. On the were standouts Lois Vandenberg and Terri Hyland. With only two graduating seniors, Rutland figures to improve next year.

The girls' tennis team showed a great deal of potential for a state championship, coming off a surprise fifth place in the state the year before in only their first varsity season. Coaches Mrs. Margaret Dick and Mrs. Betty Phelps started the team a short three years ago and it was a now or never situation in '75 with eight returning seniors playing. Rounding off the singles were probably Dale Pratt, Kathy Blauvelt, Lee Dolan, Kay Chesley, Barb Smith and sophomore Tory Sneff. Other returning seniors included Lori Shortsleeves, Amy Dick and Jodi Van Wyck.

Last year's high finish was due to a fine showing in the finals by the doubles teams of Blauvelt — Dolan and Chesley — Smith who lost in the semi-finals.

BOYS' TENNIS

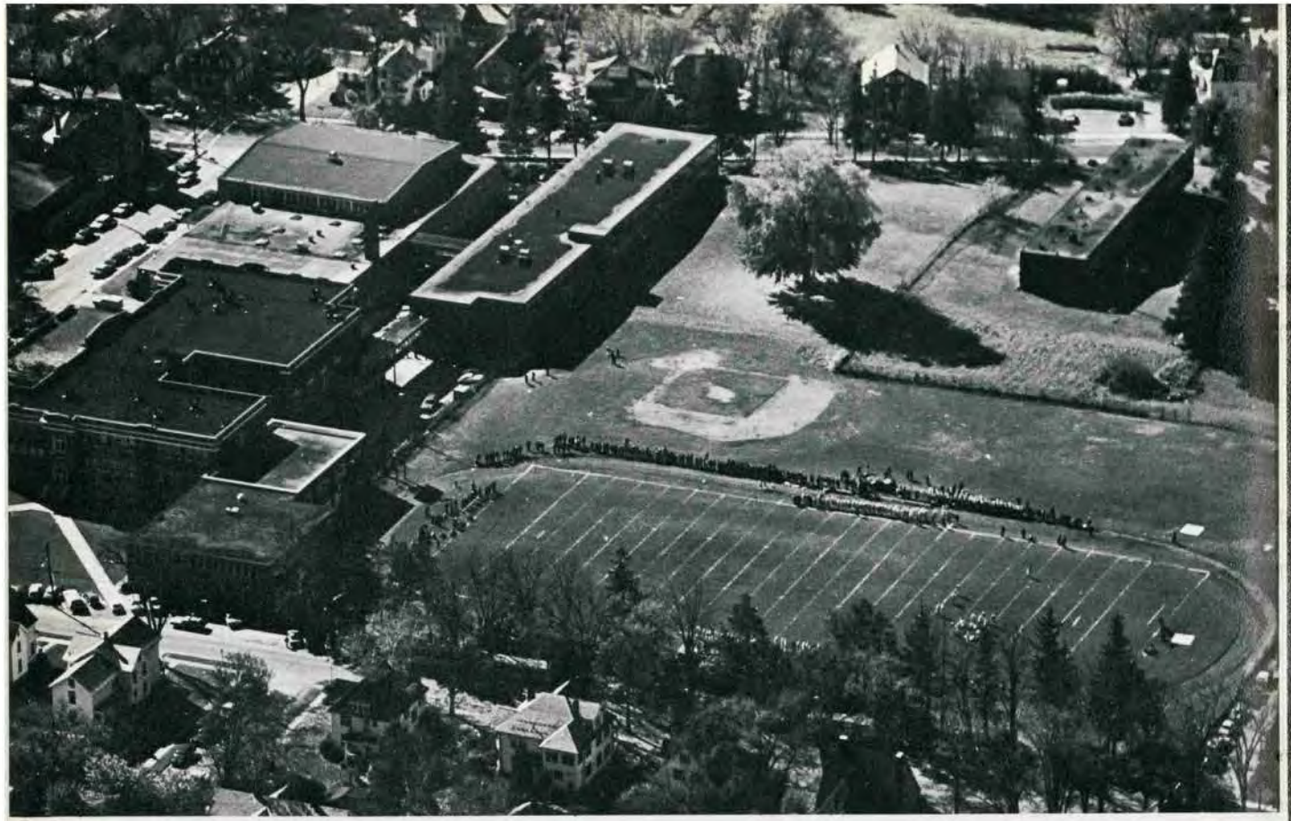

ROW 1: Chris McCormick, Yetta Rushford, Long John Silver, Chris Casey. ROW 2: Brian McGinnis, E.J. Bishop, Dave Phelps, Jeff Aliber, Pieter Blauvelt, Walley Kamens, Mr. Pop. ROW 3: Don Adams

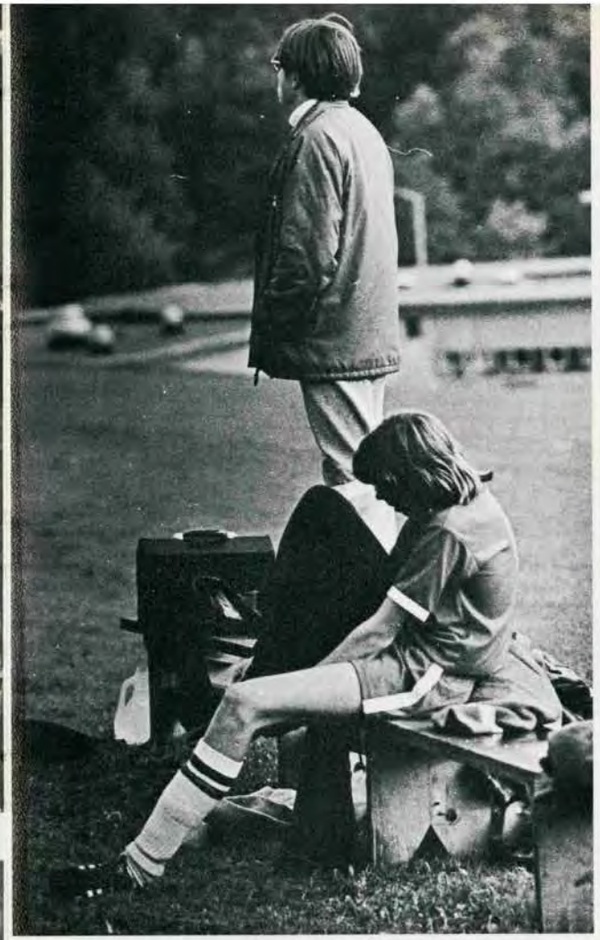

Before they began, Gene Poplawski's netmen faced a difficult task. The Rackets had few returning players to fill out their deflated ladder. These included the top player, Dave Phelps, Yetta Rushford, Rob Lash, E. J. Bishop, Peter Lind, Chris McCormick, and Don Adams. Their predecesors had dominated southern Vermont, but with five of the top six gone, '75 looked like a rebuilding year.

The 1974-'75 Raider baseball team looked forward to a good season after a state championship the year before. Coach Joe Teta had eleven returning players from the championship team. These included outfielders Bill Cioffredi, Ralph Muscatello, Pat McCarthy, and Chip Ziegler, infielders Chris Dolan, Bob Czachor, Dean Pierce, and Bob Aronson, pitcher Nick Menduni and catcher Mike Higgins. Unfortunately, the Talisman is published before baseball season, so we can't tell you how the Raiders did.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Pres. Pepper Sneff, V.P. Dave Newton, Sec-Treas. Dave Phelps

Seniors: Pepper Sneff, Dave Newton, Terri Jones, Bryan Marquard, Kathy Blauvelt, Kay Chesley, Andie Eklund, Dee Mcfarren, Pete Goshgarian, Sandy Loveland. Juniors: Robbie Lash, Hillary Rosenberg, Russ Dunn, Becky Wesson, Tom Bloomer, Judy Ryan, Dave Westerbee, Nancy Wierzbicki, Chuck Hodgson, Bob Fowler, Dirk Larson, Kathy Kellogg, Melissa Mace, Carolyn Stevens, Cindy Johnson, Tom Rushford. Sophomores: Kevin Loso, Jayson Laird, Tory Sneff, Kathy Siliski, Marianne Herbert, Patty Wierzbicki, Lauren Smith, Steve Fenn, Jeff Aliber, Stew Rosen, Phil Susman, Faith Markowski, Dave Farrell, Ed Myers.

Under the leadership of President Pepper Sneff, Vice President Dave Newton, and Secretary-Treasurer Dave Phelps, the student council once again became the most energetic acitivity at Rutland High. A great deal of their success was due to mandatory weekly meetings during the school day, which were preceeded by Executive Council meetings of the class presidents, student council officers and a student at large.

The student council began the year with a Back to School Dance to start building up their treasury. Next was a November Goof Bowl featuring the student council all-stars versus the faculty. The result: students 28, faculty 7.

Perhaps the most inovative activities was the Winter Carnival, held the first weekend in Frebruary. It was the personification of the class eat class fight with the sophomores finishing first, the seniors second and the juniors third. Competition began Thursday night when the sophomores grabbed a quick lead by winning the skit night festivities. They also won the spaghetti eating contest, thanks to John Palmer's mouth and the boys' bake-off because of Tim Rushford's cheesecake. Events won by the seniors were broomball and the snow sculpture. Preceeded two nights before by a square dance, the Carnival came to a finish Saturday night with the Carnival Dance: Valentines in the Snow. Kevin Loso garnered more points for the sophomores by being crowned the dance's Mr. Irresistable. He was chosen on Thursday when he won the most hearts from helpless high school girls. His ice queen, junior Lynn Mumford was chosen from those girls who did not give up their hearts.

The Talent Show, run by the council for the American Field Service, was held in April, featuring singing, dancing, and skits by students. In May came the second annual Walk-A-Thon for the Vermont Association for the Crippled. Among other activities were exchanges held with other student councils including Otter Valley, M.S.J., Mt. Anthony, Proctor, and South Burlington. Student Council members also sold ice cream in the student ounge and sponsored a child to Camp Day-Break. Also important was work done by various committees in the interest of all Rutland High School students.

The Red & White

EDITORS CORNER-

by Richard Walker

As the second quarter begins, we can look back and analyze the progress that has been made, if any. As far as this year is concerned, we can use the off-campus restriction as a [illegible] stick.

[illegible] year opened in Septem[illegible] this student [illegible] they ha[illegible] campus [illegible] contin[illegible] and things still haven't been straightened out. The problem with us, the students, is not that we have to stay on campus in designated areas until permanent dismissal for the day it is that we gripe over our differences with the administration. The more and more we gripe over our dissaprovals, the tighter and tighter the administration is going to close their ears to any suggestions. This doesn't only apply to the open-campus dispute but with everything affiliated with RHS.

If we conduct ourselves like mature adults and use our common sense, we would go to our class representatives with our complaints and suggestions and then see that they make things known. That's what they are there for.

So from now on, if you have a complaint or helpful suggestion, let your class representatives know about them, have them confer with he administration and at least make the school more unified. If we can get a healthy unification between the students and administration and before we know it, they will start listening to us and thin[illegible] turn suddenly [illegible] way [illegible] sure you do your [illegible] help[illegible] the next [illegible] quar[illegible] both [illegible] ing [illegible] expe[illegible] yrone[illegible] [illegible] just ending and grades being passed out, up comes the grading system dispute again. In this writer's opinion, to award an honor student more points than a student in a basic course is unfair. There is no doubt about it. The honor student had to display a consistant out put of good quality work to even be offered an honors course. But, that is not the point, There could be basic students who are showing more effort in their work than an honor student but are being downgraded because of their inability to attain a high level of understanding. This kind of grading system is putting students into a "caste" system. The benefits of honor students will show up when colleges start inspecting courses. If there is to be any type of point system, it should be based on the students attitude rather than his comprehensive output.

GOOF BOWL

The leaves have fallen and the fall season is ending so now comes the time for the annual Game of the Generations: Wisdom and Beauty on one side; Youth and Spunk on the other. The contest is scheduled for November 18th. The students are already conniving and planning away while a rumor says that the teachers are getting some tips from Joe Teta. The game will be under supervision of the watchful but wandering eyes of Referee Rick Eaton. Jason Laird is going to be the guiding light for the sophomores as their coach.

As the faculty won last year, the students are aching for a win. It looks like a big rout for some team. Most likely the students.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Scot Sussman, Bob Czachor, Bil Cioffredi, Andie Eklund, Lisa Tiraboshi, Sue Kingsbury, Anne Boretos, Missing - Dale and Diane Pratt

This year's Honor Society, under the leadership of President Kathy Blauvelt and Vice President Bill Cioffredi, strove to become an active service organization again. Among their activities were the organization of an A.F.S. club and the sponsoring of an Indian child.

The 1975 members were inducted in March and chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service. New members included seniors Pete Goshgarian, Paul Gustafson, Mark Jones, Garnet Sanford, Lori Shortsleeves, Rich Walker, juniors Sean Canary, Tim Dombro, Jeff Forte, Wendy Icken, Cindy Johnson, Joanne Joyce, Joe Keenan, Kathy Kellogg, Rob Lash, Betsy Martin, Leslie Reuling, Hillary Rosenberg, Tom Rushford, Carolyn Stevens, Nancy Wierzbicki, Martha Wolcott.

BAND

The Rutland High School band pictured above in marching uniform was a familiar sight at football games and Rutland parades. The band which consisted of sixty instrumentalists, under the direction of Robert Miller also presented several concerts for the public and school during the year. In addition to this, Rutland students also participated in district, State, New England, and Eastern festivals. All Eastern representatives were Sue Giffin, Mickey Fiske, and Dale Pratt.

CHORUS

Approximately one hundred students under the direction of Mrs. Andrea Etzler comprised the '74-'75 chorus. In addition to their regular Christmas and spring concerts, the chorus presented programs for the Rotary Club, a chamber concert by All-New England nominees and an exchange concert with Elmira, New York. Students also participated in district, State and Eastern festivals as well as the New Englands. Representing Rutland at the All-Eastern Festival in Philadelphia were Kathryn Blauvelt, Kyle Noble, Mary Barrows and Sandra Loveland.

Tim Herbert — Boy's Nation

East year the American Legion sponsors Girl's and Boy's State at Vermont College and Norwich University University respectively. Students participate in simulated state and local government elections in the summer of their junior year.

One of two Vermont representatives to Boy's Nation was Tim J. Herbert who was appointed Secretary of the Air Force.

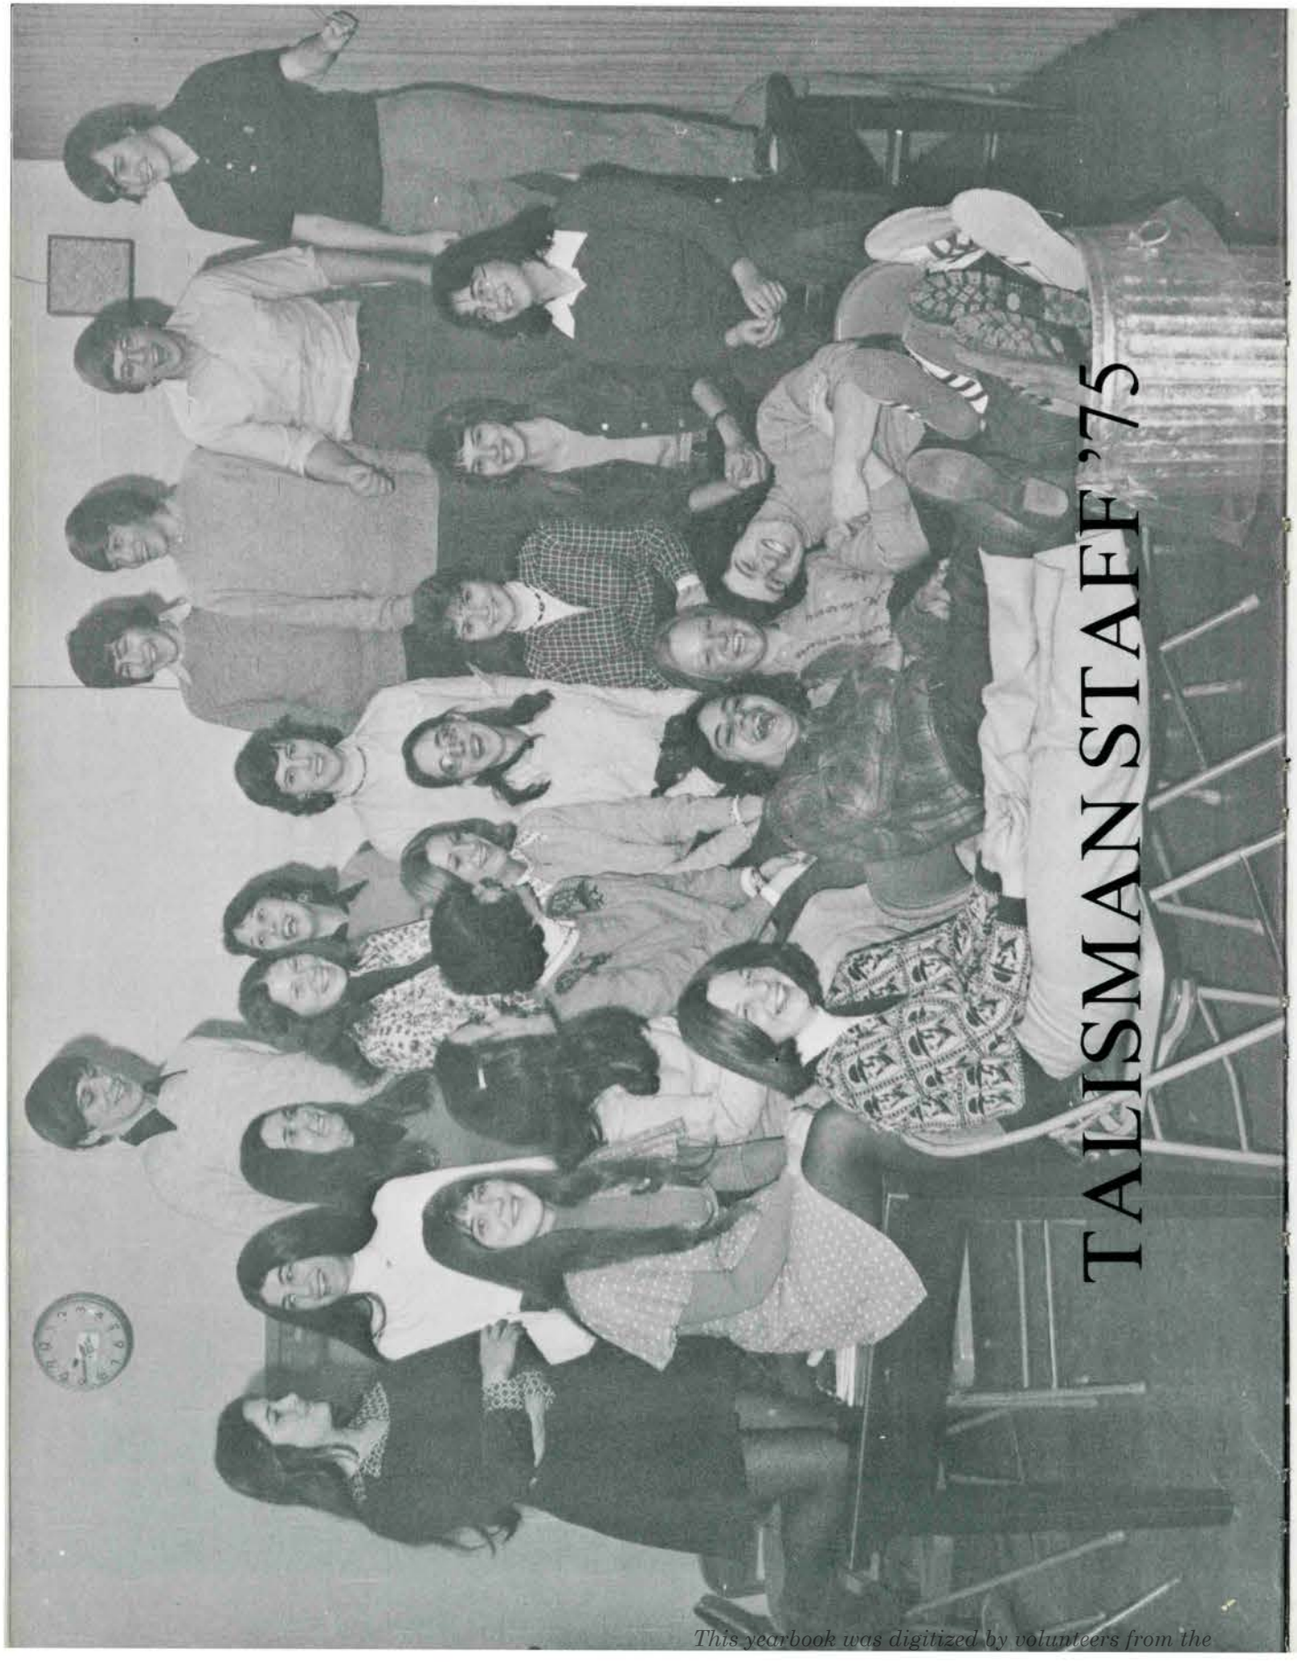

TALISMAN

So, the year 1975 is over and approximately three hundred people who entered Rutland High School in 1972 are graduating. That should probably read "graduated" because the first time you see this will be summer '75. If you ever look at this book after ten years and wonder why so few people wrote in it, it's not necessarily because you were unpopular, but rather because this yearbook, like the one before it was delivered after school was out. You see, when you have students solely running a 192 page, 768 picture, $5,000 operation, it can be kind of mind boggling for them. It's true we could have used alot more help from the adult faction of this book, but that wasn't the only problem. Consider asking an activity president to write a summery of the year and coming back a week later and finding they were too busy to do it. Or how about asking a photographer to take indoor track pictures and he conviently forgot to until the season was over. This is by no means an apology for the Talisman. We're not ready to admit that this isn't the best damn yearbook that ever came out of Rutland High. Sure, we missed a few things but the atmosphere we caught and the happenings we recorded make this a good book.

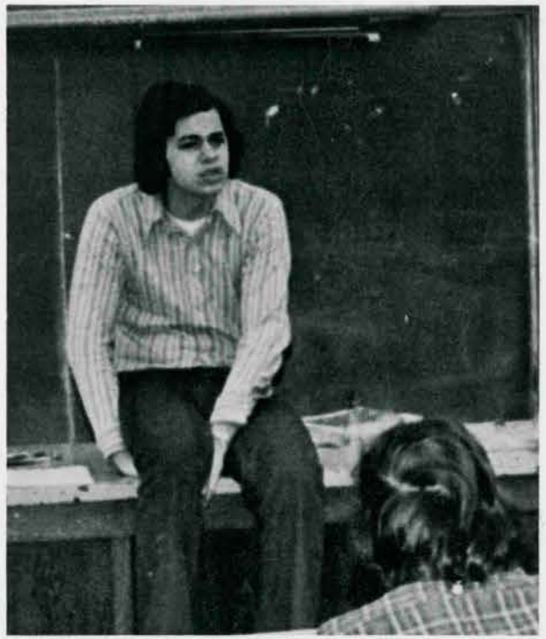

There's one thing every editor regrets about his or her creation. Somehow you can never work in the parts of high school that were just as important as the subjects assigned and the credits earned. Things like a choclate milkshake from Minards, cruising around town, those earth shaking debates on the nature of the universe in the student lounge, turning eighteen, Mr. Teta's intellectual jokes, tormenting substitute teachers, trying to catch the eye of that certain person, getting squashed in the rush to an assembly, Mr. Smatresk's midnight play rehersals, getting psyched for the M.S.J. game, the ridiculous schemes, the beer parties, the dates, the report cards, the cliques, the friendships, the fights, the hassles, the crushes, the pressures, the fingernail biting, the crash diets, the crying, the laughing and so on. And we can't do any more than tell you that this was the year of Henry Kissinger's shuttle diplomacy in the Middle East, the sentencing of the Watergate participants, the Paul Newman, Robert Redford, and Barbra Streisand movies, the Elton John records, the dubious revival of the midi skirt and the bow tie, a world wide depression, when Ali won back his heavy weight championship crown, when celebrated couple Jimmy Connors and Chris Evert ruled tennis, the rise of the Arab nations the take over of South Vietnam by the Viet Cong, Gerald Fords presidency and the first close up pictures of Jupitar and Mercury.

What's all this leading up to? Well, right now the '75 graduates are upon the threshold of a dream, which was our theme though we never developed it. You're rose scented, ivory coated, silver lined, rainbow colored, jewel studded, unrepeatable, unprecedented, miraculous entities with individuality oozing out of every pore. You're unique and that's beautiful. But where ever you go you'll always have something in common with 1200 other people: you went to Rutland High in 1975. And if you did more than just exist through these years than the memories are here in this book. You see, a yearbook is sort of time in a bottle, to coin a phrase. Just exist through these years than the memories are here in this book. You see, a yearbook is sort of time in a bottle, to coin a phrase. Just leave it in some dusty bookcase and come back periodically to be soothed by memories of a time you can only live once. Think about that- just once. Love, peace and sunshine for the rest of your life.

"THE NIGHT THOREAU SPENT IN JAIL"

Directed by Robert Smatresk

'The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail', presented December 12,13,14, 1974, starred Timothy Herbert as Henry David Thoreau, American writer and philosopher. It begins when Thoreau, refusing to pay his taxes, spends a night in jail with Bailey (Kevin Loso). In memories, he recalls his early manhood with John Thoreau (John Higgins), his mother (Susan Perry), and his love Ellen (Lauren Beauchamp). Thoreau becomes associated with Waldo Emerson (Todd Barnhart), and his wife (Val Megas). As payment for work he does for the Emersons, he receives a plot of land, which he names Waldon and lives on for many years. In his cell, Thoreau relives his failure as a school teacher as a result of disagreements with Deacon Ball (John Paul), his friendship with Emerson, his brother's death, and his efforts to rebel against the Mexican War.

Vocational-Technical Building

Louis Salebra — Director

The new Vocational-Technical Building opened in September under the direction of Louis Salebra. The school boasted improved and expanded studies in all areas of Vocational training. Such programs included are quantitative food, forestry, and dental hygeine. There is also a restaurant serving student made food, a student store and a green house.

The effect of the new building was felt at the high school where over crowding became less evident. The Vocational-Technical building minimized the number of students at R.H.S. at one time since Vocational students were shuttled to the Voc-Tech for half a day.

The Voc-Tech building is the best of it's kind in the area. It shouldn't be long before it begins to pay for itself by returning highly trained professionals to the community.
